NATIONAL PIE DAY

National Pie Day is celebrated in the United States on January 23. It was started in the 1970s by Charlie Papazian, a teacher from Boulder, Colorado, who declared his own birthday to be National Pie Day!

January was named for the Roman god Janus, known as the protector of gates and doorways, which symbolize beginnings and endings. Janus is depicted with two faces, one looking into the past, the other with the ability to see into the future!

“After Christmas, I traveled to visit my son and his young family. I went to help with cooking and cleaning, as they had a new baby. As I was loading my car to leave, I quipped that I was concerned that they would starve after I was gone. My 4-year-old granddaughter smiled up at me and said, “It’s OK, YaYa, we still have candy canes on the Christmas tree!”

- Stephanie Hamilton
