QUOTES FOR THE DAY

"You only live once,
but if you do it right,
once is enough."

~ Mae West

"If you have something to say of any worth, then people will listen to you."

~ Oscar Peterson

"The first step is clearly defining what it is you're after, because without knowing that,
you'll never get it."

~ Halle Berry

"In every conceivable manner,
the family is our link to our past,
our bridge to our future."

~ Alex Haley

"Let every man be respected as an individual and no man idolized."

~ Albert Einstein

"It sounds so simple, but if you just be yourself, you're different than anyone else."

~ Tony Bennett

FUN FACTS

A metal foot sizer is called a Brannock device. Do you remember standing on one of those to find your shoe size?

The No. 2 pencil was used on standardized tests, as its graphite was dark and could be read by scan machines. Do you remember sharpening pencils by hand?

By the 1950s, Sears and Montgomery Ward catalogs featured full back-to-school sections. Why do you think shopping in catalogs was so exciting?

The first department store escalator was installed in 1898. Would you try one of those old moving staircases? Before backpacks, leather satchels or books tied together with a strap were used. Why do you think carrying books has changed so much over the years?

DID YOU KNOW?

Back-to-school sales began in the 1920s. Why do you think new clothes became such a big deal?

In the early 1900s, children carried lunches in tobacco tins, syrup cans, or cloth sacks. Did you or someone in your family ever use a homemade or hand-medown lunch container?

In the 1950s, department stores offered full-service fittings, and basics were often made of soft cotton or rayon. Why do you think new underthings made kids feel school-ready?

SUMMER HUMOR

Why did the watchmaker go on vacation?
To unwind.

Where do birds go on summer vacation?
The Canary Islands!

Why don't mummies go on vacation?
They're afraid to unwind.

Why did the scientist wear so much sunscreen?
Because she was a paleontologist.

What is brown and hairy and incredibly relaxed?
A coconut on vacation.
