WELCOME SEPTEMBER!!

LABOR DAY TICKLE YOUR FUNNY BONE

The only labor
I do now is getting out of my recliner.

A RETIREE'S TOAST

Take a chair, a drink in hand,
Wave goodbye to work so grand.

Labor Day, no job in sight,
Just calm mornings, sleep at night.

Cheers to years of daily grind,
Now sweet rest is what I find!

Once I chased the daily grind,
Clocked my hours, toed the line.

Now my time is mine to keep,
Long walks, soft books, and extra sleep.

— Benjamin Franklin

SEPTEMBER BIRTHDAYS!

September 18 - Anna

September 20 - Mary

September 26 - Aenisa

DID YOU KNOW?

In the 1800s, many American workers labored up to 100 hours a week in harsh, often dangerous conditions. Labor unions rose to demand change, fighting for an eight-hour workday, fair pay, safer workplaces, and paid time off. This sparked marches, protests, and strikes that helped transform labor rights across the country. Labor Day was established to honor their courage and to celebrate the dignity and value of everyday work.

GRANDPARENTS’ WIT AND WISDOM

“Nobody can do for little children what grandparents do. Grandparents sort of sprinkle stardust over the lives of little children.” — Alex Haley

“A child needs a grandparent, anybody’s grandparent, to grow a little more securely into an unfamiliar world.” — Charles and Ann Morse

“Sometimes our grandmas and grandpas are like grand-angels.” — Lexie Saige

“Grandchildren are God’s way of compensating us for growing old.” — Mary H. Waldrip

“What children need most are the essentials that grandparents provide in abundance. They give unconditional love, kindness, patience, humor, comfort, lessons in life. And, most importantly, cookies.” — Rudolph Giuliani

“If nothing is going well, call your grandmother.” — Italian Proverb

“Grandma always made you feel she had been waiting to see just you all day and now the day was complete.” — Marcy Demaree

“If God had intended us to follow recipes, He wouldn’t have given us grandmothers.” — Linda Henley

WHAT IS ROSH HASHANAH?

Rosh HaShanah (literally, “Head of the Year”) is the Jewish New Year, a time of prayer, and self-reflection. We review our actions during the past year, and we look for ways to improve ourselves, our communities, and our world in the year to come. The holiday marks the beginning of a 10-day period, known as the Yamim Nora-im (“Days of Awe” or “High Holidays”).
