SAINT PATRICK'S DAY

Leprechauns are often associated with the Irish, but they didn't appear in ancient mythological tales, they became popular much later. Before the 20th century, leprechauns were thought to wear red instead of green. They are described as tiny creatures, wearing a jacket, formal hat, and shoes with buckles. Writer and amateur folklorist William Butler Yeats was part of a literary movement that called attention to the leprechaun in the late 19th century. Leprechauns are said to have hidden a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

SPRING IS HERE!

*Spring is here.
Spring is here.
Goodbye, snow.
Flowers grow.
Birds and bees,
leaves on trees.
Hello, spring.
Hello, spring.*

MARCH BIRTHDAYS!

March 26 – Sarah G

PURIM

The story of Purim comes from the Book of Esther, also called the Megillah, which tells how Queen Esther and her cousin Mordechai saved the Jewish people from the wicked villain Haman. The tale is known for its plot twists, hidden identities, bravery, and the dramatic downfall of Haman. Braham Ramadan Purim is celebrated with hamantaschen (a triangle-shaped pastry with jam filling), wine, kreplach (small meat or potato-filled dumplings), and a joyous meal shared with friends and family.

Costumes are a beloved part of Purim celebrations. They reflect themes of hidden identity in the Purim story (Esther concealed her Jewish identity at first), and they bring fun, creativity, and playfulness to the holiday through masks, costumes, and festive dress-up.

NEW FOR THE MONTH

LEPRECHAUN HUNT

Tuesday the 3rd at 1:00PM (AR)

The Leprechaun's always like to hide at The Windsor. We will try to find them around the building. Please come to the Activity Room and we will discuss how this will work. It has been a favorite activity at The Windsor for years
